Repeat Advice: Be open to change
(whether you choose it or not!)

Be generous when you can.

I'm thankful for:

Working with other disciplines

Fundraising

Building Programs & Partnerships

Seeing my students succeed

When the wave is getting ready to hit, dive in! (& don't be afraid to ask for help)
